Amelia Hoffman Plaintiff
vs.

Ernest W. Hoffman and Clifford C. Barron, in their own rights, and as Trustees for Emma Frederick, and as Executors of the last Will and Testament of Ernest Hoffman, deceased, Anna H. Hoffman, Carl Hoffman, Eda L. Barron and Albert Hoffman Fisher, Defendants.
Now at this day comes the plaintiff herein by her Attorneys, Aull & Aull, having filed herein the petition of plaintiff alleging, among other things, that defendant Carl Hoffman is a non-resident of the State of Missouri.

Whereupon, it is ordered by the Clerk of said court in vacation as follows: To the said defendant, Carl Hoffman:

You are hereby notified that the plaintiff has commenced a suit against you in this court, the object and general nature of which is to obtain judgment and decree of the court ascertaining, determining and decreeing the marital rights, titles and interests of plaintiff, and to which she is entitled, as widow of Ernest Hoffman, deceased, in or to the properties and estate of Ernest Hoffman, deceased, including the following, situate in the county of Lafayette, in the state of Missouri, to-wit:

The west half of lot numbered eleven and the east half of lot numbered ten in block thirty-three, in First Addition to the Town (now city) of Lexington, Missouri; lot five in block thirty-two of First Addition to the Town (now city) of Lexington, Missouri; lots three and four and fifty feet off the east side of lot five block thirty-three, all in First Addition to the Town (now city) of Lexington, Missouri; also one-half of the east wall of a building formerly belonging to John Baehr situated on said lot five, together with all the buildings and the brewery plant situate on said lots and real estate, and all brewery machinery, machinery, material, engine and fixtures, tools and implements belonging thereto, together with the ice-plant and bottling works, apparatus, appliances, and appurtenances situated on said real estate, connected with, used, employed and belonging or appertaining to, said brewery, ice-plant and bottling works, and in the operation thereof, and all stock, fixtures and property on said real estate belonging to said Ernest Hoffman in his life-time or at his death; also the south half of lot eight in block thirty-three of First Addition to the Town, (now city), of Lexington, Missouri; also lot nine and the west half of lot ten in Block thirty-three of First Addition to the Town, (now city), of Lexington, Missouri; also lots one, two, three and four of block thirty-nine of First Addition to the Town, (now city), of Lexington, Missouri; also a tract of land situated in said county and described as follows: commencing at a stone at the northwest corner of a tract of land in section thirty-three, in township fifty-one, of range twenty-seven, formerly known as the "old woolen mill tract," thence south thirty-eight degrees east three hundred and sixty-eight links, thence north eighty-three and one-fourth degrees east to the intersection with the south line of the county road leading to the Catholic Cemetery, thence with said south line of said road in a meandering northwesterly course until intersecting the southwesterly perpetuated east line of Third street of the city of Lexington, Missouri, thence south forty-six degrees west to the point of beginning, containing one-third of an acre; also the following tract of land lying in said county, to-wit: a strip of land containing four acres, more or less, being a part of the northeast quarter of the southwest quarter of section thirty-three in township fifty-one of range twenty-seven, described as follows: beginning at a stone in the southwest corner of the city of Lexington, Missouri, forty feet from off the southwest corner of lot seven in block six of Buckingham & Company's addition to the city of Lexington, Missouri, thence south forty-six degrees west six and twenty hundredths chains, thence south fifty-four and one-half degrees east one and thirty-two hundredths chains, thence south forty-eight and one-half degrees east two and ninety-five hundredths chains, thence north eighty-two degrees east sixty-seven hundredths chains, thence north seventy-two degrees east seven and sixty-six hundredths chains, thence north thirty-seven degrees west two and fifty-eight hundredths chains, thence south eighty-three and one-fourth degrees west three chains to the beginning, and known as the "Hoffman pond tract," and a small tract of land adjoining the last described tract on the north purchased by Ernest Hoffman of William T. Bell, the description of which is unknown to plaintiff, also lots seven, fifteen and sixteen in block Q of Anderson's Addition to the town, now city, of Lexington, Missouri; also the west half of lot eleven and the east half of lot ten in block thirty-three of First Addition to the town, now city, of Lexington, Missouri; also lot one in the Town of Dover, Missouri, excepting fifty feet off the south end and fifty feet off the north end of said lot. Also a large amount of personal property, individual and other deposits, annuities, notes, bonds, bank stock and shares in action including the personal property, monies, notes, bonds, bank stock, and shares in action set forth in the inventory of said estate on file in the office of the Probate Court of said County.

Also to obtain a decree declaring and decreeing of no effect as to plaintiff, said rights, titles and interests, and all provisions of alleged or pretended contract or contracts, and of the last will of said Ernest Hoffman, claimed or alleged to in any-wise affect plaintiff's said rights, titles and interests, decreeing the foregoing and other properties to have been and to be properties of the estate of Ernest

Hoffman, deceased, the rights, titles and interests of the parties hereto therein, and thereto, and decreeing that the same be set-off to the parties or there be distribution of the same accordingly, and praying all other and further proper relief.
And that unless said Carl Hoffman be and appear at this Court, at the next term thereof, to be begun and holden at the Court House in the City of Lexington, in said County, on the tenth day of October, 1921, next, and on or before the said 10th day answer or plead to the Petition in said cause, the same will be taken as confessed and judgment will be rendered accordingly.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said county of Lafayette, designated by the plaintiff and her attorney of record, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next October Term, 1921, of this Court.

Nice Sill Plaintiff
vs.

The unknown consorts, heirs devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, mesne and remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees and successors of George Houx, James H. Graham, William Anderson, William Spratt, and James Aull, all now deceased, as individuals and as Trustees and proprietors of the Addition to the original Town, now City of Lexington, Missouri, and the unknown consorts, heirs devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, mesne and remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of Theodore Gosewisch, deceased.

Now comes the plaintiff by his Attorneys and files his petition verified by affidavit, alleging, among other things, that there are persons interested in the subject matter of the petition whose names plaintiff cannot insert therein because they are unknown to plaintiff and that such persons are the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, mesne and remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees and successors of George Houx, James H. Graham, William Anderson, William Spratt, and James Aull, all now deceased, as individuals and as Trustees and proprietors of the Addition to the original Town, now City of Lexington, Missouri, and the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, mesne and remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of Theodore Gosewisch, deceased, and describing the claims and interests of such unknown persons and how the same are derived so far as known to plaintiff; whereupon it is ordered by the Clerk of the Court in Vacation as follows: To said defendants, the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, mesne and remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees and successors of George Houx, James H. Graham, William Anderson, William Spratt and James Aull, all now deceased, as individuals and as Trustees and proprietors of the Addition to the original Town, now City of Lexington, Missouri, and the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, mesne and remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of Theodore Gosewisch, deceased, you are hereby notified that plaintiff has commenced a suit against you in this Court the object and general nature of which is to obtain a judgment and decree of said Court determining the title and interests of plaintiff and defendants in, and to quiet title to the following described real estate, situate in the City of Lexington, Lafayette County, Missouri, to-wit: Lot number one (1) in block number thirty-nine (39) and forty-eight (48) feet taken off of the east side of lot number two (2) in block number thirty-nine (39), all in the First Addition to the Town, now City of Lexington, Missouri, that the petition alleges that plaintiff is the owner in fee and is in possession of said real estate and that plaintiff and those under whom he claims, have been in the open, adverse, notorious, hostile, lawful, exclusive, continuous and peaceable possession of said real estate for more than thirty-one years next before the filing of the petition, claiming title thereto and paying taxes thereon; that the claims and interests of said unknown persons are unknown to plaintiff and cannot be set forth in the petition for the reason that the same are unknown to him, and that said unknown persons claim some title, interest or estate in said real estate the nature and character of which is unknown to plaintiff and cannot be described in the petition except that said claims are prejudicial and adverse to plaintiff; that the claims and interests of said unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, mesne and remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees and successors of George Houx, James H. Graham, William Anderson, William Spratt and James Aull, as individuals and as Trustees and proprietors of the Addition to the original Town, now City of Lexington, Missouri, are derived from the said George Houx, James H. Graham, William Anderson, William Spratt and James Aull as such Trustees and proprietors on record in the public land records in said County and that they do not appear to have conveyed the same as such trustees or proprietors and that they and each of them have been dead for more than forty years.

That the claims and interests of the unknown consorts, heirs, devisees, donees, alienees, and immediate, mesne and remote, voluntary and involuntary grantees of Theodore Gosewisch, deceased, are derived from the said Theodore Gosewisch, deceased, by reason of the fact that there is a conveyance of said real estate to said George Houx, James H. Graham, William Anderson, William Spratt and James Aull by said Theodore Gosewisch, deceased, and that they and each of them have been dead for more than forty years.

And it is further ordered, that a copy hereof be published, according to law in the Lexington Intelligencer, a newspaper published in said County of Lafayette, designated by the plaintiffs and their Attorney of record, for four weeks successively, published at least once a week, the last insertion to be at least fifteen days before the first day of said next October Term of this Court.

Camels are made for Men who Think for Themselves

Such folks know real quality—and DEMAND it.

They prefer Camels because Camels give them the smoothest, mellowest smoke they can buy—because they love the mild, rich flavor of choicest tobaccos, perfectly blended—and because Camels leave NO CIGARETTY AFTERTASTE.

Like every man who does his own thinking, you want fine tobacco in your cigarettes. You'll find it in Camels.

And, mind you, no flashy package just for show. No extra wrappers! No costly frills! These things don't improve the smoke any more than premiums or coupons.

But QUALITY! Listen! That's CAMELS!
